

Want to Help Homeless Animals? Sponsor the 17th Annual Fur Ball

Dear Friend,

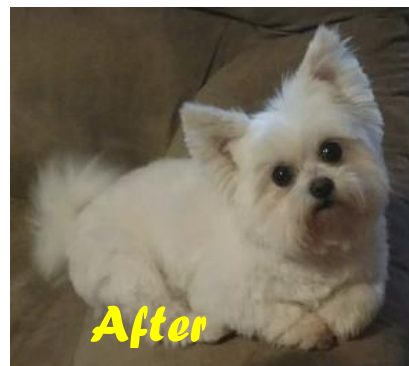

The Humane Society of the Ohio Valley (HSOV) will hold the 17th Annual Fur Ball on March 28, 2020, at the Shrine Club in Marietta, Ohio from 7:00 p.m. until Midnight. Fur Ball attendees are treated to an evening of live entertainment, great food and the opportunity to bid on fabulous prizes.

This is our main fundraising event each year so that we can continue to help local animals in need, like Arlo.

Arlo was living in deplorable conditions with twelve other animals when he was brought to HSOV in June. Though he was neglected, filthy and missing a tremendous amount of hair; he was the sweetest little guy you would ever meet. A couple at HSOV volunteered to foster him but after taking him in, they fell so head over heels in love that they decided to adopt instead! Now, with proper diet and grooming, patience, and lots of love, his “rags to riches” transformation has been incredible.

What a heartwarming story with a happy ending!

We are so proud to care for scared animals like Arlo when they have nowhere else to turn. In addition to seeking loving, permanent homes for companion animals, HSOV also operates with the following priorities:

- To Provide Spay and Neuter Assistance Programs
- To Work Actively to Prevent and Address Animal Cruelty
- To Educate the Public About Humane Issues

But it takes an average of $9,400.00 a month in medical costs alone to care for dogs like Arlo and all the other animals that come through the door. Sometimes, we simply don't have the funds.

This is why we're asking you to please consider becoming a supporter of the HSOV 17th Annual Fur Ball in one of the following ways:

- Sponsorship – Enclosed you will find a flyer showing the sponsorship levels
- Donations – We will be accepting donations of items, gift cards, tickets, etc. to be used in Country Store and Live Auction

Thanks in Advance!
